Whilst working as a freelance copywriter and editor, I have managed a portfolio of evolving work across a number of sectors, building and maintaining client and studio relationships. My role consists of the following:

· Planning, creating and editing high-engagement copy
. Producing eror-free content that adheres to the clients style guidelines and/or brand voice
. Meeting client expectations
. Interpreting and conceptualising creative briefs
. Developing work through iteration
. Conducting interviews and independant research on behalf of clients

. Simultaneously manage multiple projects with varying deadlines
. Propose concepts and present underlying strategic thinking
. Build and maintain client and studio relationships and contacts

Sensory Lab / Venue Manager
November 2014 - present

Whilst working at Sensory Lab, I have managed teams of between 4 and 8 employees, overseen venue operations for several stores and assisted business development and creative strategy. My role included the following:

· Team management
· Recruiting and hiring
. Training and team development
. Strategic planning
. Business development
. Event coordination
. Logistics management
. Employee supervision

. Procedural development
. Budget and expenditure management
. Maintaining customer service standards
. Maintaining adherance to health, safety and hygeine regulations
. Reporting to senior management
